

Blog 1 Red Bull Ring

Hello and welcome to the Austrian GP here at the Red Bull Ring in Spielberg.

It was nice to see everybody from the Red Bull MotoGP Rookies Cup again after the summer break. Today we had like always a trackwalk. It is again a new track for me. It looks awesome.

The track has got 7 right and only 3 left corners. It seems a bit like a roller coaster. A lot of up and down sections. But it looks great and also it is a beautiful place here. I can't wait to go out tomorrow for the first time.

There is also a museum when you go to the paddock. There are a lot of cars and bikes from Red Bull.

And there is also a wall with pictures of Niki Lauda.

So tomorrow at 12:35 pm is the first session. I will tell you about the two free Practices and the Qualifying tomorrow.
See you tomorrow.
